

Report on Women’s Discussion Meeting at Leikai, Thoubal

Date: 12th June 2025

Venue: Phoude Mamang, Thoubal

On 12th June 2025, a local women’s gathering was held at Phoude Mamang, Leikai, Thoubal. A total of 25 women participated in this informal but impactful discussion session.

The central topic of the meeting was the role of women in the current situation in Manipur. The discussion focused on how women can contribute towards peace, safety, and resilience within their communities during times of unrest or crisis.

Participants also exchanged ideas on how to support one another during natural calamities, such as floods and landslides, which have increasingly affected the region. Suggestions included:

- Setting up small community-based food reserves
- Sharing essential resources such as clean water, sanitary items, and basic medicine
- Organizing local emergency support groups

The women expressed the importance of unity and mutual support, especially during challenging times, and showed a willingness to take active roles in community-level preparedness and response efforts.

Conclusion:

The meeting highlighted the strength of women’s solidarity in addressing both social unrest and natural disasters. It was agreed that more such gatherings should be organized to continue building collective awareness and practical solutions.

